12th Annual Boston Dyke March Scheduled for June 8, 2007 at 6pm

Boston, MA, June 8, 2007 - Join hundreds of queer women, men and allies in marching the streets of Boston to help celebrate Gay Pride at the 12th Annual Dyke March. This year's Boston Dyke March is on Friday, June 8, 2007. The march is gathering at the Boston Common Gazebo at 6pm sharp. Event will take place rain or shine.

Performers this year are Bitch (formerly of Bitch and Animal) and Zuli Music.

The Dyke March is wheelchair, scooter and stroller accessible. A van will be available for those who need to ride all or part of the route. ASL interpreters will be present.

For additional information on the Boston Dyke March, contact Stephanie Lowitt at 617-869-3575 or email her at slowitt2@hotmail.com or visit www.bostondykemarch.com.

Since its inception in 1993 in Washington DC, each June Dyke Marches take place in multiple cities across the United States and internationally and traditionally occur the day or night before that city's Gay Pride celebrations. For the past 12 years, the Boston Dyke March has remained committed to offering a non-commercial, fundamentally grass-roots alternative to Boston's Pride celebration. We provide an ever-improving venue for influential speakers and artists, high-quality performances and a growing number of community-based organizations.
